OURS TO GIVE!

In the spring of my 6th grade year I went through confirmation at Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian Church in Mt. Pleasant, SC. It was a 6-week class at the end of which my friends and I stood in front of the congregation and made a public profession of faith. As much as we understood what we were doing at the time, I do think we understood that this was a rite of passage and that we accepted our place of belonging within the church. We were members.

It didn't hit me for several months later how seriously the church took our actions and words that Spring day. In the fall, as I left church with my family, one of the elders stopped me and handed me a box of envelopes with my name and address on them. They were giving envelopes. Do you remember getting those? There was one for each week of the year. Now that I was a full member with all the rights and privileges thereof, I got my own giving envelopes. My first response was to think: "I don't need those! My parent's box of envelopes is just fine! I'm included in theirs!" I resisted the idea that my meager allowance and babysitting money belonged in one of those envelopes.

I can't say I ever made a full-on pledge as a youth, but I did use the envelopes occasionally. Later it would occur to me what a powerful opportunity they provided me. They took my membership and my gifts - seriously! I had my OWN box of envelopes. A few bucks from babysitting may not be a big drop in the bucket, but it was something! And it was mine to give.

This experience has shaped my understanding of stewardship and generosity. Everyone can be counted on to participate. I don't know if any children in our congregation pledge, but I do know of at least one little girl, baptized in this church, who brings her dollar and puts it in the offering plate during the time with children. Its something! And it is hers to give.

My friend and colleague Bill Williamson was fond of commenting nearly every stewardship season, and I think it to be true, that the most difficult percentage increase in giving is not from 10% to 12% or 6% to 8%. Those kinds of increases do stretch us, expanding our sense of God's graciousness and our generosity in response. But, the most difficult percentage to get to is from zero to 1%, from that occasional dollar in the plate to the regular, disciplined act of giving.

It is making up your mind that you are going to start, and then entering the joy of giving. It is a challenge. A spiritual discipline. It is one to which you are invited to consider engaging as a practice that can bear much fruit and joy. Perhaps this is the year to enter the spiritual discipline of regular stewardship. There is something thrilling about starting a new pledge, whether with a humble sum or a hefty one, for the first time, and joining your treasure to the life and witness of a lively and vibrant congregation.

There are certainly many worthy organizations to contribute your money. The church can make its plea along with them. We need to pay the light bill. We need to buy paper for bulletins. We need to pay the preacher to show up on Sunday morning, for goodness sake. Those things are necessary. But as a Christian, for me, the more compelling reason to give to the church is that there is no better place that shows forth the grace of Christ than the church. Even with all its faults, the church is still the place where the witness of Jesus is shown to the world: by teaching and equipping disciples, serving those in need, providing for those who are suffering. And so, I give to the church because this is where Jesus is seen, this is where he is proclaimed, this is where his body is fed, and this is from whence his body is sent into the world.

The Stewardship Team has put forth a big ask this year. We have big dreams that include calling an Associate Pastor to work with our children and youth ministries. We invite you to contribute your prayers and your gifts and your resources to help us realize our Core Values and expand our Mission into this community and beyond. I hope you will join David and I on November 4, Pledge Sunday, as we increase our pledge this year.

Whether you are making a pledge for the first time or you are prayerfully considering the Stewardship Team's challenge to increase your pledge by 10%, we are grateful for you. We have a congregation full of generous givers – of time, talent, love and friendship. Thank you for all you do. What every you have, it is something! It is yours to give – with joy!

With gratitude,

Rev. Maggie F. Beamguard

INTERIM DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION/ YOUTH LEADER

West End Presbyterian Church has a position open for an Interim Director of Christian Education/Youth Leader. As most of the members of the congregation are aware, our previous Director of Christian Education left in May.

Since then, members of the church, the Christian Education Committee, Youth Leaders, and Maggie have been doing the work of a Director of Christian Education. Thanks to their dedication this transition has worked. However, this cannot continue and until we are able to call an Associate Pastor, we must fill the job for an Interim Director of Christian Education.

Finding the right person for an interim position is more difficult than it may appear, and the HR Team would appreciate any suggestions the congregation has regarding this position. It is the policy of the church not to hire members of the congregation, but if members know of people who meet our qualifications that could be very helpful.

Qualifications include: A degree in Christian Education, Education or other such bachelor's degree that provides the underpinnings of working with youth in a church setting. Strong interpersonal, organizational and communication skills. The job would require a minimum of 35 hours per week, willingness to travel with youth to conferences and mission trips and working on Sundays. This individual would be responsible for leading our youth, children and their families in spiritual development and Christian education. The salary is competitive and benefits are negotiable. If anyone in the congregation has a contact that fits our requirements, have them contact Maggie at the church or a member of the HR Team: Chip Lee, Carol Pate, Laura Pitts, and Mary Price.

A message (in a bottle)

Stewardship Team

409, does that ring a bell? It should because that is the number, $409,000, that we are planning to reach with our stewardship campaign this year. We are hoping that everyone will be able to help us reach it by raising their pledges by 10 %. The Stewardship Team would like to thank everyone who has participated in one of the small groups and a special thank you to all the small group hosts who were so gracious to open their homes up for these wonderful gatherings. We would also like to remind everyone that Stewardship Sunday is November 4, and we invite everyone to attend church that day and to bring with them their 2019 pledge cards. You should have received these cards in the mail. If you did not get one, please call the church office. If you are unable to attend, please drop your card in the church office.

West End Presbyterian on Wednesdays

The purpose of the Presbyterian Women is to nurture our faith through prayer and Bible study, support the mission of the church worldwide, and our church locally. The evening circle participates with the daytime women's group to fulfill this purpose. We pay dues to the Presbyterian Women organization to support this purpose worldwide. The West End Presbyterian Women budget has supported our own church by supporting our youth missions and projects as well as other mission projects.

On Wednesday, October 17, the WOW kids visited the West End Methodist Church Food Pantry to deliver food collected from this congregation. Frank Feggeler met the group of 26 kindergarten through fifth graders. As the children arrived, the food was weighed for a grand total of 107 pounds! Every other Wednesday, the food pantry donates about 150 boxes of food to families in our community. They rely solely on donations to keep this mission going.

The WOW kids would like to thank the members of WEPC who donated to this worthy cause. They would like to sponsor another food drive next spring so if you missed this opportunity, there will be another one to help this local mission. Thank you for helping us learn that kids can make a difference.

PW EVENING CIRCLE

The evening women's circle meets on the third Monday of each month at 7:30 pm. We will be meeting in the Hogan Youth Center on Monday, November 19. We will continue our study in the Presbyterian Women's Horizons Bible Study materials on "God's Promise: I am with You," by Amy Poling Sutherlun and Brenda Bertrand.

"This study takes readers on a journey through scripture to consider circumstances in which God articulated God's promise of presence. We will discover how God's promise speaks to our circumstances, as individuals and as a community. We will be encouraged to know of God's presence with us wherever we find ourselves on this life's journey - through uncertainty and discouragement; during trials and times of powerlessness; when we seek God's guidance and, yes, during our everyday lives."

MEN'S BREAKFAST begins in the Crawford Center at 8:00 a.m. on the first Sunday of every month. Mark your calendars to join them on Sunday, November 4 and December 2. All men and their sons are invited for prayer, breakfast, project proposals, and fellowship. The usual breakfast is eggs, sausage, bacon, grits, gravy, biscuits, and cinnamon rolls. All this for $5. The first meeting is as a guest. Much sports talk can be overheard while the cooking is in progress.

PW MORNING CIRCLE

The Morning Circle will meet Monday, November 5 at 9:30 am in the Hogan Youth Center. We will study Lesson 7: In Community with the Hope of the Future from the book "Cloud of Witnesses." Please bring your Bible. Everyone is invited.

HANGING OF THE GREENS & ADVENT WORKSHOP

Help us kick off the Season of Advent on Sunday, November 25 from 3:30 - 5:30 p.m. with this wonderful intergenerational event! At 3:30 p.m. all will gather in the Sanctuary for a prayer and some carols. Folks can then participate in the decorating of the sanctuary for Advent or proceed to the Crawford Center for an Advent Craft Workshop. To celebrate our creative endeavors, we will all enjoy some holiday treats in the Crawford Center. This event is led by our Worship Ministry Team, our Christian Education Ministry Team, and our Deacons.

This Advent, we will explore the theme “Draw Near.” The “Draw Near” logo was designed by Lauren Wright Pittman. The words “Draw” and “Near” literally draw near to one another and represent the landscape of heaven and earth becoming one. The merging of heaven and earth symbolizes the Kingdom of God drawing near to us in Christ. It reflects our individual and collective longing for God’s closeness and for a world made new.

As we affirm that God draws near to us by taking on flesh and becoming one of us, we will consider how we can draw near to God by leaning into wonder, justice, truth, and one another.

Coming this Advent:

- ◇ “Draw Near” Advent Devotionals, available beginning November 25
- ◇ Visio Divina Bible Study in the Hogan Youth Center, Noon, Wednesdays (Dec. 5, 12, 19) Bring Your Own Lunch, led by Maggie Beamguard
- ◇ Special Programs on Drawing Near to “Wonder,” “Justice,” “Truth,” and “One Another,” TBA

It's that time of year to start thinking about our Moore County neighbors as we gear up for

CHRISTMAS FOR MOORE

With your generous support as well as other local sponsors, well over 1,500 neighbors will be able to experience the joy of Christmas this year. What a blessing! Our church again will be sponsoring multi families/individuals. More information about this wonderful holiday mission project will be coming your way soon!

Please remember our Veterans,
not only on Veteran’s Day,

MEET THE RINGERS & SINGERS OF WEPC!

This month we meet Terre Currie who sings alto in the Chancel Choir. Born and raised in Moore County, Terre attended Aberdeen High School and was in the first graduating class of Pinecrest High School (1970). She was an active member of the Ives Memorial Baptist Church, baptized there at the age of 13 and sang in the youth and adult choirs. During these years she was an Aberdeen High and Pinecrest High School cheerleader and a bus driver.

Currie family. Terre has five children and ten grandchildren.

Since moving back to NC, Terre has been working at Moore Regional Hospital in the Department of Infection Control as an Infection Preventionist and has a great team with whom to work. She is now a member of choir, the “Over Yonder” Sunday School Class, and currently serves as a deacon. She enjoys singing in the choir and feels it is a meaningful way to participate in our worship service. “It’s a small group of people but we enjoy being together to make a joyful noise” says Terre. We are so blessed to have her!

Terre graduated from UNC-CH in 1974 with a BS in Nursing, worked at NC Memorial Hospital for 12 years as the Gynecologic Nurse Oncologist, and is a founding counsel member of the Society of Gynecologic Nurse Oncologists. While in Chapel Hill, she met her husband, the late Dr. John L. Currie who was a Gynecologic Oncologist and pelvic surgeon. Surprisingly, he was from Carthage, NC (and brother to Tom Currie, whom many of you know).

In 1986, John was recruited to Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, MD where Terre continued to work as the Gynecologic Nurse Oncologist. In 1994, life took them to Dartmouth Medical School where John was Chairman of the Dept of OB/GYN and Terre was clinical researcher for the Department of Infectious Diseases.

Terre and John built a house at Montreat where their children were raised attending clubs and working as counselors as they grew. Summers in Montreat were an important part of their lives with the extended

“There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.”

On October 14, we celebrated the Sacrament of Baptism and welcomed

WALKER REYNOLDS BARE

Wright and Walker are the sons of Jordan and Mark Bare; and, the grandsons of Debbie and Phil Bare, and Traci and Steve Baxter.
